

Licences and Certification

At Hadfields we pride ourselves on providing a first-class service to our customers and as such, we ensure:

- All our activities comply with health and safety policies and procedures
- We have a waste management license
- We are a registered waste carrier
- We are registered with the Environment Agency
- We are Government accredited to issue Packaging Recovery Notes (PRNs)